Innovation at the heart of the Show

The Baby Show for Trade was the perfect combination of nursery essentials, eye-catching innovations and expert business advice. Nursery Industry reports...

The Baby Show for Trade 2011, the second of its kind, now has the full support of the BPA and its members which resulted in the show boasting more than an extra 50 exhibitors and close to 100 additional brands being represented. This, in addition to the record breaking number of exclusive launches and show offers only available during the three days of the show made it well worth the retailer's visit.

The Baby Boutique Pavilion was at the heart of the show and hosted the most sought after and design-led latest nursery products today. Brands showcasing included Snuggle Feet, momymoo, Pixie and Punk, Cool Bamboo, Baby Emporio, RockFerry, Jack & Jill, AnaGibb, Dalfin Designs, Olli Ella and Yippydada.

Fabulously British high street clothing icon Joules has given birth to Baby Joule Nursery. A gorgeous range of toys, bedding and accessories that in true Joules style bring the countryside into the nursery, were on display.
